Further Considerations

BIAAS values partnerships that advances its mission and leads to open access information. Do you anticipate that BIAAS may share any information or products from your research? For example, BIAAS may promote book releases, support a podcast or video, host blogs, etc.

If you can anticipate any way(s) in which BIAAS may disseminate information or promote products from your research with a broader public audience, please briefly state your ideas here.

Character Limit: 250

The Journal of Austrian-American History*

Do you anticipate that any papers or articles resulting from your research may be submitted to the Journal of Austrian-American History?

Narrative Description

Narrative Description*

The applicant should submit a narrative, not to exceed 10,000 characters, which provides a justification for the project, conveying the ideas, objectives, methods, and work plan. A simple statement of need or intent is insufficient.

The applicant should describe the significance of the proposed project pertaining to Austrian-American studies, including its value to scholars and/or general audiences.

If a grant request is for a distinct part of a larger project, an overview of the larger project should be included.

The applicant should also describe the intended audience of the project.

Please note: footnotes are incompatible, format-wise, with this software. If necessary, please feel free to use in-text citations (i.e., MLA, APA) that refer to the proposal's bibliography instead.

Character Limit: 10000

Intended Results*

The applicant should describe the intended results of the project. The applicant should explain how the results will be disseminated and why such means are appropriate to the subject matter and audience.

This portion of the narrative description may not exceed 2,500 characters.

Character Limit: 2500
